Serial No.

Re the representation of the residents of the City and Civil and Military Station Bangalore, Women's Christian temperance Union & B.T. Federation, "Chevron & Anchor", "Liquor Bans" &c were prohibited in 1915, in all public entertainments, after a full consideration of the question in Council (File 98-14 below). In the case of the Race Course however, an exception is made on the ground that for over 30 years, the Race-Course has enjoyed the privilege (File 180-15 below).

Applications for running "Chevron & Anchor" &c after 1915, have been consistently rejected, except in the case of the Race Course. Whether any exception can be made in the present case is for consideration. This is said to be a "Charity" fete, and perhaps deserves a consideration, but will create a bad precedent. The request may perhaps be declined.

Office of the District Magistrate,
Bangalore District,
Dated, Bangalore 26th November 1923.

From

The District Magistrate,

Bangalore District.

To

The Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, Local & Legislative Departments, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that Major R. H. Allen has applied for permission being granted to run "Crown & Anchor" table on the 3rd, 4th and 5th January 1924 at upshot, High Ground on the occasion of the charity Fete that is being arranged by Mrs. Barton and other ladies on these days. This play comes under gambling and is prohibited on such occasions (vide G.O. No. 8792-842/Ml. 98-4-14 dated 12th May 1915 in Government orde No. G. 22791-850/Cts. 194-20-3 dated 30th May 1921) But as the Government have relaxed the above rule so far as the Race Course is concerned (Vide General Secretary's No. 1998/Cts. 94-21-2 dated 5th ~~May~~ October 1921) I would submit for the orders of Government, the present request of Major Allen. It appears to me that as a special case the present request may be granted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

B Srinivasa Rao

District Magistrate,

Bangalore District.
